

DOTORI WRITER'S WORKSHOP

SAT 1:30–3:00 PM

Spring 2026

GOALS

- Develop writing skills across multiple genres by strengthening each student's ability to draft, revise, and improve writing at their individual level.
- Build strong revision and editing habits by learning how to clarify ideas, refine language, and produce polished writing through an ongoing workshop process.

SESSION DATES

: 4/4, 4/11, 4/25, 5/2, 5/9, 5/16, 5/23, 5/30, 6/6, 6/13

Dotori Writer's Workshop is a 10-week, workshop-style writing class. Each week, students choose their own genre and topic, then move through the full writing process — brainstorming, drafting, revising, and editing — with individualized teacher feedback and guided peer discussion. The course is designed to strengthen each student's ability to develop ideas, refine language, and produce polished writing at their individual level.
